BWI MARSHALL AIRPORT FACE COVERINGS AND SOCIAL DISTANCING

In accordance with Governor Hogan's Executive Order dated April 15, 2020 and Anne Arundel County Department of Health's Order for Public Safety dated April 14, 2020 requiring the use of face coverings and social distancing, it is recommended that all individuals (employees, contractors, tenants, and customers) wear a face mask or face covering (non-medical mask, bandana, or scarf) when entering Baltimore/Washington International Thurgood Marshall (BWI Marshall) Airport or its facilities and when utilizing BWI Marshall Airport public transportation. Physical distancing measures shall also be in place to maintain at least six-foot spacing between all individuals.
